

FanWide is the World's Largest Sports Watching Network!

11,000 Sports Bars | 15,000 Fan Club Chapters | 1.6 Million Events | 25 Million Data Records

FanWide.com offers a free website which helps sports fans find an online fan community or local televised game, watch party or fan club for their favorite sports teams wherever they live or travel. Seattle-based FanWide was founded in 2016 and has created America's largest sports watching network, promoting over 1.5 million events at 11,000 sports bars for 15,000 fan communities.

The world's leading sports organizations use FanWide's services and technology to manage their fan communities. FanWide provides Virtual Watch Parties and is the Official Bar Partner of dozens of sports teams and fan clubs from the NFL, NBA, LaLiga, Rugby League and others. By creating multi-city game watch parties at sports bars and online, FanWide helps sports organizations provide their remote fans with a gameday experience like they would get inside the stadium of their favorite team. FanWide helps pro, college and international sports teams create, manage, monetize and collect data from their communities of remote fans. FanWide's tech can be easily embedded within any team's website or app.

FanWide lets bars attract new customers and increase sales by automating their sports event scheduling and marketing to local sports fans. FanWide's patent-pending AI predicts which games fans are looking for in any city. If there is no organized event in that area, FanWide creates it and sells the exclusive listing rights to a local bar. FanWide drives customers to any bar on any day of the year by promoting game watch parties for televised events on the channels they subscribe to. When sports fans search online for the nearest place to watch their favorite team, FanWide's SEO-optimized platform gets its bars listed on the first page of Google and Facebook. FanWide provides tools to help sports bar of all sizes optimize their operations on gameday, reward their patrons for loyalty, build a mailing list and much more.

Fan communities and alumni associations join FanWide.com to find more local fans, manage their events digitally, increase engagement and measure attendance. Event data and consumer profiles are crowdsourced, anonymized and aggregated across thousands of bars nationwide. This can be used to increase the Out-Of-Home (OOH) TV viewing audience size. Broadcasters and sports organizations can see a surge in their overall viewing audience size by millions of fans each season. Major global brands are now sponsoring FanWide's events for geotargeted marketing to a network of valuable sports fans.

FanWide's technologies, data and services help members of any digital community find each other and a host in the real world. Long-term, FanWide's global platform will create new local communities for fans of any interest group by giving them a nearby place to meet up and feel like they are at home with likeminded friends.
